

Emergency Extraction Information for Aircraft N430J

Aircraft Type: L-39 Albatross
Registration: N430J
Pilot Name: Scott Farnsworth
Emergency Contact Name: Shane Phillips
Emergency Contact Number: (256)-613-7195
Date: April 16, 2019

LEFT SIDE ACCESS ONLY

Rotating to unlock four flat head screws will open the access panel to reveal an electrical kill switch

Electrical/Ignition System N430J

Once access panel open,
the red kill switch on left side of batteries kills electric once rotated clockwise.

Harnesses N430J

Pull up on single release bar to disengage
harness

Aircraft Type: L-39 Albatross
Registration: N430J
Pilot Name: Scott Farnsworth
Emergency Contact Name: Shane Phillips
Emergency Contact Number: (256)-613-7195
Date: April 16, 2019

Ejection System
N430J
N/A

NO EJECTION SEAT

Hazmat N430J

Mandatory

Follow oxygen tubes leading off of regulator to find oxygen bottle on floor board between pilots legs. Rotate knob to the right to shut off supply of Oxygen.

Optional

Rotate knob to the left to turn regulator off and stop oxygen flow.

Aircraft Type: L-39 Albatross
Registration: N430J
Pilot Name: Scott Farnsworth
Emergency Contact Name: Shane Phillips
Emergency Contact Number: (256)-613-7195
Date: April 16, 2019

Fuel System N430J

Emergency fuel shut off switch. Red knob shifted towards rear of jet initiates the fuel cutoff.

Canopy System N430J

LEFT SIDE ACCESS ONLY

-Push in tab to reveal handle.

-Rotate handle up to unlock canopy.

-Lift up on handle to open canopy

Aircraft Type: L-39 Albatross
Registration: N430J
Pilot Name: Scott Farnsworth
Emergency Contact Name: Shane Phillips
Emergency Contact Number: (256)-613-7195
Date: April 16, 2019