

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Aviation Administration

April 1, 2019

David Schultz
365 Sunset Ridge Rd
Clearfield, PA 16830

Dear Mr. Schultz:

This letter authorizes you to serve as a Recognized Air Boss (RAB) at any basic, standard, or complex air show.

You are authorized to direct only air show participant aircraft within the airspace and on the airport as described in Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Form 7711-1, Certificate of Waiver or Authorization.

Limitations:

- 1) You may not provide or imply that you are providing air traffic services.
 - a) As an air boss, you are not authorized to direct non-air-show participant operations, such as air carrier departures/arrivals and/or overflights. Non-air-show participants must be controlled in accordance with current Air Traffic Organization (ATO) policies and procedures, as well as current Federal aviation regulations.

This authorization expires on December 31, 2022

This office is available to answer any questions you may have concerning FAA aviation event policies. Kevin Raymond, FAA National Aviation Event Specialist (NAES), can be reached by telephone at (847) 294-7155 or via email at kevin.raymond@faa.gov.

Sincerely,

Kevin Raymond
FAA National Aviation Events Specialist

cc: International Council of Air Shows